

Dear Andrea,

I did file an appeal with Summary Court. Why was not a hearing scheduled?

Hi Foots,

I've attached a copy of the Enforcement Notice. You will note towards the end that it instructed you to file an appeal with the Summary Court not the Planning Department. We were never notified of a hearing date either.

Kind regards,

Andrea

Dear Andrea,

The issue with my project in Blossom Village: I requested a Tribunal hearing according to the law. Why has that Tribunal Hearing never been scheduled? It has been years! The information I want from you is the following: When did I make a request for the hearing according your records, and why has that hearing never been scheduled?

I await your reply.

Hi Foots,

I had a similar question on another appeal earlier today. Your situation is a bit different because you were the actual property owner. In the other case the person was an adjacent parcel owner who lodged an appeal. The question I have posed to my supervisor is if an appeal is lodged and the person then sells his/her property does he/she still have right to appeal or does that fall to the new property owner? Have you sold the property in Blossom Village? If so, I think any outstanding obligations would fall on the new owner. Let me just get that clarified and I will get back to you.

Kind regards,

Andrea

Dear Andrea,

I asked for the Tribunal Hearing at least four years ago.

Please let me know its status.

Sincerely,

Ronald Kynes Sr. (A.K.A. "Foots")

Hi Mr. Foots,

I'm not sure. Did you keep record of when you applied?

Kind regards,

Andrea

Dear Andrea,

How long has been since I applied for a Tribunal Hearing for my Blossom Village property on Little Cayman?

I await your reply.
